

2023 Valley Little League Mickeys-A-AA Rules

Safety

- Please watch this free concussion video from Nation Federation of High School Association: <https://nfhslearn.com/courses/concussion-in-sports-2>
- Review our league safety plan, COVID & lightening protocol post at: <https://valleyleague.org/safety/>

Coaches

- Please check gear bag for ice packs. If there are none, please contact us ASAP.
- If you haven't registered as a coach, please do so NOW. A link is provided at the top of the coaches corner page.

Fields

- Rainouts – Coaches call rainouts at elementary school fields.
 - Email rainouts@valleyleague.org with 2-3 available dates that work for both teams
 - We will provide a list of coaching contacts
- Field Prep – Home team preps field
 - Hand drag and rake the field
 - Line field with chalk in storage lockers
 - Email for chalk: info@valleyleague.org
- Practice requests
 - Email rainouts@valleyleague.org for practice requests as well
 - Most practice times available are on Friday evenings and Saturday afternoons

Level rules

- Game length:
 - During the week you can go as long as you want. Communicate with opposing coach prior to game start
 - On the weekends you have 90 minutes.
 - If you have time, please base race the other team at the end of the game
- In game coaching
 - Coaches can be on the field while their team plays defense
 - Don't hesitate to take a moment to teach or coach during the game
- AA
 - Coach pitch only
 - Kids can strike out, but give them a chance to hit (up to 8 pitches)
 - Double on balls hit in the outfield
 - Kids are removed from the base if they are put out
 - An inning ends if either happens
 - 3 outs
 - Offense bats through the lineup, last batter clears the bases

- A
 - Coach pitch
 - Bring out tee to finish at bat
 - Double on balls hit in the outfield
 - Coaches' discretion to remove kids from bases on put outs
 - An inning ends after the offense bats through the lineup, last batter clears the bases
- Mickeys
 - Everyone hits off tee
 - Inning ends after the offense bats through the lineup, last batter clears the bases